Benediction		Bruce Hemeon

In that ancient ritual which was the gospel in symbol, no blemished offering could be brought to God's altar. The sacrifice that was to represent Christ must be spotless. The word of God points to this as an illustration of what His children are to be--"a living sacrifice," "holy and without blemish," "well-pleasing to God." Romans 12:1, R.V., margin Ephesians 5:27. Ministry of Healing, p. 130

Prayer Song

Soften My Heart

Soften my heart, Lord, soften my heart;
From all indifference set me apart.
To feel your compassion, to weep with Your tears;
Come soften my heart, O Lord, soften my heart.
(Please kneel and repeat verse.)

Children's Song

In the Trees

In the trees the birds are singing,
In the mountains and the glens,
By the rivers and the brooks and by the sea;
But there's food for all the robins and the tiny little wrens,
And there's bread in His hand for me.

Oh, the world is full of children,
Oh, so many and so fair,
Like the sunbeams as they sparkle on the sea;
But there's room for all the children
In the Father's tender care,
And there's room in His heart for me.

Benediction

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in His wonderful face;
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim
In the light of His glory and grace.

Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Take hold of His powerful hand,
He will lift you up in His mighty love,
In the strength of your God you can stand.

These Bible studies contain the major ideas only and can be fleshed out by those who want to use them.

Is the Bible Trustworthy and Reliable?

Ekkehardt Mueller

Have you ever wondered what sacred books are all about? The Bible is such a book. The word "Bible" means originally "book." It claims to be the book, different from all other books. Therefore, it has also been called "Scripture," Holy Scriptures," and the "Word of God" and has become the foundation of the life and faith of humans throughout the centuries.

II. Facts About the Bible, Part I

What are the facts that point us to the extraordinary nature of the Bible?

(1) The Bible was written during a long time span (c. 1500 B.C. to 100 A.D.). In spite of that long time and the changes in society it is a unified whole.

(2) The more than thirty authors of the 66 biblical books came from different social classes. They include shepherds and fishermen, scholars and king. Yet, these books complement each other, and it is one common thread that runs through them.

(3) The Bible consists of two major parts, the Old Testament written in Hebrew predominantly and the New Testament written in Greek. Both are in a wonderful way depending on each other.

Cry of My Heart

(Please Stand)

It is the cry of my heart to follow You.

It is the cry of my heart to be close to You.

It is the cry of my heart to follow all of the days of my life.

Teach me Your holy ways, O Lord So I can walk in Your truth.

Teach me Your holy ways, O Lord

And make me wholly devoted to You.

Open my eyes so I can see The wonderful things that You do.

Open my heart up more and more

And make me wholly devoted to You.

Desire of My Heart

O Desire of my heart, O Delight of my soul;

You fill me completely, You make my life whole.

You surround me with joy by the love only You impart;

I will praise You forever O Desire of my heart.

(Please kneel and repeat verse)
