Postlude

Since the Sabbath is the memorial of creative power, it is the day above all others when we should acquaint ourselves with God through His works. In the minds of the children the very thought of the Sabbath should be bound up with the beauty of natural things. Happy is the family who can go to the place of worship on the Sabbath as Jesus and His disciples went to the synagogue--across the fields, along the shores of the lake, or through the groves. Happy the father and mother who can teach their children God's written word with illustrations from the open pages of the book of nature; who can gather under the green trees, in the fresh, pure air, to study the word and to sing the praise of the Father above.

We Bring the Sacrifice of Praise

We bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord;
We bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord;
And we offer up to You the sacrifices of thanksgiving;
And we offer up to You the sacrifices of joy!

I Come To The Cross

I come to the cross, seeking mercy and grace,
I come to the cross, where You died in my place.
Out of my weakness and into Your strength,
Humbly, I come to the cross.

Your arms are open, You call me my name,
You welcome this child that was lost,
You paid the price for my guilt and my shame
Jesus, I come. Jesus, I come. Jesus, I come to the cross.

You Are My Wholeness

In You I find forgiveness. Yes, in You I find release.
It's a wonder You take all the blunders I make
And so graciously offer me peace.

Chorus:

You, You are my wholeness. You are my completeness.
My soul, my thirsty soul can rest in the depths of Your love.

In You I find true friendship. Yes, Your love is so free of demand.
Though I must hurt You so, You keep letting me go
To discover the person I am.

Like a Father, You long to protect me.
Yet You know I must learn on my own.
Well, I've made my own choice to follow Your voice
Guiding me back to my home.

Theme Song
We Declare Your Majesty
(Please Stand)

We declare Your majesty,
We proclaim that Your name is exalted.

For You reign magnificently, Rule victoriously,
And Your power is shown throughout the earth.

And we exclaim, "Our God is mighty,
Lift up Your name for You are holy."

Sing it again all honour and glory,
In adoration we bow before Your throne.

Prayer Song
Come Just As You Are

Come just as you are, Hear the Spirit call, Come just as you are.
Come and see, come receive, Come and live forever.

Life everlasting, Strength for today,
Taste the living water and never thirst again.
(Please Kneel and Repeat 1st Verse)

Children's Song
The Third Day

(Sung to the tune of "O Day of Rest and Gladness)
On the third day of creation God made the land appear,
He made the trees and flowers, He made the grass so fair,
He made the plants that grow our food and every tiny seed,
We sing our praise to Jesus, Who knows our every need!

and worry ends where faith begins.

Health Nugget

New Veg on the Broc

What looks like broccoli but with a longer, slender stem and smaller flowering buds? It's broccolini, a cross between broccoli and Chinese kale. You can find it in the produce section of your local grocery store. (The name is trademarked by Mann Packing Co., which introduced broccolini to North America in 1998. Other companies call the vegetable baby broccoli.)

Like most green vegetables, broccolini is loaded with vitamin C (130 per cent of a day's worth) and vitamin A (30 per cent). And it's not too shabby in the potassium (8 per cent), calcium (6 per cent), and iron (4 per cent) departments. That's for a three- or four-stalk serving (85 grams) that will cost you only 35 fat-free, nearly sodium-free calories.

The taste has hints of broccoli and asparagus. It's a bit sweet and peppery when raw and milder and sweeter when cooked. But unlike broccoli and asparagus, the stalks aren't at all woody. Broccolini is completely edible, from flower to stem.

Try sautéing broccolini with sliced garlic in a bit of the oil from a bottle of sun-dried tomatoes, then top with a few of the chopped tomatoes. Or toss with a little extra-virgin olive oil and roast at 450° F on a baking sheet for 12 to 15 minutes. Season with a squeeze or two of fresh lemon juice, a dusting of freshly ground pepper, and a sprinkle of Parmesan. In a hurry? Just steam your broccolini, then drizzle with your favourite vinaigrette or some toasted sesame oil.
