Prayer is the opening of the heart to God as to a friend. Not that it is necessary in order to make known to God what we are, but in order to enable us to receive Him. Prayer does not bring God down to us, but brings us up to Him.

Children's Song

Away In A Manger

Away in a manger no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

Benediction

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in His wonderful face;
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim
In the light of His glory and grace.

Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Take hold of His powerful hand,
He will lift you up in His mighty love,
In the strength of your God you can stand.

Health Nuggets

Couch Potato-ism

Q: My husband is a real couch potato. How can I get him active?

A: We suggest you have a nice, friendly, and supportive chat with your husband. Tell him you love him, want him around a long time, and are interested in participating in activities with him. Activities like what? Well, a daily walk for starters. Then you could garden together or—depending on your age—develop some exciting and health-promoting activities. Exercise doesn't have to be boring.

Swimming, or better yet, diving or snorkeling, offers a change; canoeing or kayaking, bike riding, hiking, taking the dog for a walk—all are different and better than sitting on the couch all day.

We recently read about a study reported in The Journal of the American Medical Association as a letter (April 25, 2007, p. 1772). The researchers took a dozen healthy, older adults and put them to bed for 10 days. They were allowed up to go to the bathroom, but did little else. These folk showed a large loss of skeletal muscle, but the loss actually occurred during the last five days.

The older we get, the more important it is to remain active, and weight-bearing exercises assume even greater importance.

So “chivy” that husband of yours, and get him active!
