Unless the mind of God becomes the mind of men, every effort of man to purify himself will be useless; for it is impossible to elevate man except through a knowledge of God... A nominal acceptance of truth is good as far as it goes, and the ability to give a reason for our faith is a good accomplishment; but if the truth does not go deeper than this, the soul will never be saved. The heart must be purified from all moral defilement. The Youth's Instructor, 1894.

Certainty in an Uncertain World?

Ekkehardt Mueller

There are so many uncertainties in our world.. But we can be sure about our relationship with God and the gift of everlasting life.

II. Certainty of Salvation Is Needed

2. How to Find Certainty of Salvation?

Acts 16:31 - "What must I do to be saved." "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved." Five steps may be helpful:

- (1) Recognize that God loves you and has a plan for your life (John 3:16; 10:10).
- (2) Accept that you are a sinner and cannot save yourself. As sinners we are separated from God, have to expect death, and cannot bridge the chasm which exists between God and us (Rom 3:23; Isa 59:2).
- (3) Recognize that in Jesus Christ God has prepared the only way out of our dilemma. By dying in our place Jesus has bridged the chasm (Rom 5:8; John 14:6).
- (4) Accept Jesus as Savior and Lord (John 1:12; 6:47-48, 54) by faith (Acts 16:31; Eph 2:8-9). Invite him to take complete control over your life.
- (5) Rely on God's promises, not your feelings. If you have accepted Jesus as Savior and Lord, trust the divine promise that you now have everlasting life (1John 5:11-13). Maintain your relationship with the Lord by daily talking to him in prayer and listening to his Word, by seeking the fellowship of the believers and talking about Jesus to others.
