Postlude

It is impossible for man to save himself. Christ's righteousness alone can avail for his salvation, and this is the gift of God. This is the wedding garment in which you may appear as a welcome guest at the marriage supper of the Lamb. Let faith take hold of Christ without delay, and you will be a new creature in Jesus, a light to the world. Christ is called "The Lord our righteousness." And through faith each one should say, "The Lord my righteousness." When faith lays hold upon this gift, the praise of God will be upon our lips, and we shall be able to say, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

Sabbath Thought

This is the mystery of the riches of divine grace for sinners, for by a wonderful exchange our sins are now not ours but Christ's, and Christ's righteousness is not Christ's, but ours.

Martin Luther

#248 O, How I Love Jesus

#249 Praise Him! Praise Him!

#526 Because He Lives

Theme Song
We Declare Your Majesty
(Please Stand)

We declare Your majesty,
We proclaim that Your name is exalted.

For You reign magnificently, Rule victoriously,
And Your power is shown throughout the earth.

And we exclaim, "Our God is mighty,
Lift up Your name for You are holy."

Sing it again all honour and glory,
In adoration we bow before Your throne.

Prayer Song
Come Just As You Are

Come just as you are, Hear the Spirit call,
Come just as you are.
Come and see, come receive, Come and live forever.

Life everlasting, Strength for today,
Taste the living water and never thirst again.
(Please Kneel and Repeat 1st Verse)

Health Nuggets

Laugh a Little

By Winston J. Craig

We cannot escape illness entirely. It is a normal part of life. However, research has revealed that laughter is a useful factor for combating the negative effects of illness. Laughter can promote good health by increasing the number of disease-fighting immune cells. Laughter can also combat the negative effects of stress.

Humor is the spice of life. It helps to relieve a tense situation and provides us with a chance to laugh about the oddities of life. It helps to minimize one's worries and fears, and enables an individual to confront problems with greater creativity and flexibility. Humor also helps to relax and engage an audience during a lecture or speech.

Hospital patients who receive humor therapy by watching comedies and "candid camera" reruns and by reading jokes are more relaxed and responsive, sleep better, and make fewer demands on the hospital staff. Dr Kathleen Dillon found that immunoglobulin A (IgA) levels in the saliva of college students increased significantly after they viewed 30 minute humorous videotapes. Furthermore, those who used humor as a way of coping with difficult life situations also had the highest initial IgA levels. She proposed that a consistently cheerful approach to life helped boost the immune system. Dr Lee Berk also found that watching humorous films produced a marked decrease in the stress hormone cortisol and a significant increase in immune cell activity. Health professionals have now realized the value of laughter to reduce pain, foster recovery, and brighten the outlook of life.

True Christians should be happy and joyful (Ps 68:3). Many years ago King Solomon wrote that happiness can do a lot of good like a medicine (Prov 17:22). Cheerfulness and contentment will produce positive effects upon our health. There is real value in remembering pleasant and humorous events from our past.

Portrayal of A Summer Day

*The beauty of a summer day
Can never fully be portrayed
On canvas or by poets' words,
For it is something too superb
To limit to the hand of man
Or to a poet's own mind span;
For it is God's infinity
And this so shall it ever be.*

He creates every lovely scene...

Now, future, and those that have been.

*True beauty of a Summer day
Can only be by God portrayed.*
